Dear Dr. Zucconi,

On behalf of the American Psychological Association Psychology, Division 32, it is my pleasure to congratulate you and the Istituto dell'Approccio Centrato sulla Persona (IACP) for being selected to receive the Charlotte and Karl Bühler Award for 2012. This award is given to an institution, and an individual associated with an institution, that has made an outstanding and lasting contribution to humanistic psychology.

To accept this award, the Society requires that you present an address at the 120th annual APA convention in Orlando, FL, August 2-5, 2012. Please note that we do not reimburse you for the cost of registration or travel expenses.

Please respond to me via email to confirm your willingness to present an address at this convention and accept our award.

Subsequently, please provide me with: 1) your full name, and 2) degree, ABPP, or other credential as you wish it to appear on your plaque via email by March 1, 2011.

Additionally, please provide me with: 1) the title of your talk, 2) your institutional affiliation as you wish it to appear in our program, and 3) a brief biographical sketch that may be used to introduce you via email by November 1, 2011. An updated bio may be sent before June 1, 2012.

The Humanistic Division is pleased to honor you for your outstanding work to the field of humanistic psychology.

Sincerely,

Susan Gordon, PhD
